

Ibiza Swim Camp Experience

By Swim Wanderer & BeWaterTraining

19–23 octubre 2026 · Ibiza

Experience five days of training, learning and open water swimming in Ibiza.

The Ibiza Swim Camp Experience is designed for swimmers who want to improve their technique, gain confidence in the sea and enjoy some of the best open water swimming locations in the Mediterranean.

Throughout the camp, we will combine pool swimming sessions, open water training, video analysis, technical talks, practical advice and local support, so you can experience Ibiza from the water in a safe, personal and truly special way.

The camp is organized by Swim Wanderer together with José Juan Aranda "Joju", creator of BeWaterTraining, a brand specialized in swimming training, triathlon and technical improvement in the water.

A week to train, learn and enjoy the sea

This camp was created to offer a complete experience for open water swimmers: technique, training, safety, community and discovery of the island.

It is not just about swimming. It is about understanding the sea better, learning how to orient yourself, improving your efficiency in the water, sharing sessions with other swimmers and enjoying Ibiza at an ideal time of year for swimming.

The programme takes place just after OCEANMAN Ibiza and before IbiziOWS, making it the perfect opportunity to extend your stay on the island, combine events and experience a true week of open water swimming.

Technical direction

José Juan Aranda “Joju” · Creator of BeWaterTraining

The technical direction of the camp will be led by José Juan Aranda “Joju”, creator of BeWaterTraining, a brand specialized in swimming training, triathlon and technical improvement in the water.

BeWaterTraining was created with a very clear philosophy: to help swimmers and triathletes improve the way they swim, become more efficient in the water and enjoy the training process more.

Its methodology combines technique, efficiency, adaptation to the aquatic environment and a practical approach to learning, both in the pool and in open water.

Joju has extensive experience as a swimmer, coach and educator. During the camp, he will lead the pool sessions, open water training, video analysis, technical talks and personalized advice so that each participant can improve their technique, confidence and safety in the sea.

The combination of Swim Wanderer, as a local organizer specialized in open water swimming experiences in Ibiza, and BeWaterTraining, as a technical reference in swimming training, makes this camp a complete experience: sport, learning, sea, community and discovery of the island.

Available places

The camp will be confirmed with a minimum of 10 registered swimmers.

The number of places may be increased depending on demand, while always maintaining a small and personal group format, with a maximum of fewer than 30 participants.

This limit allows us to guarantee a high-quality experience, good attention during the sessions and safe organization both in the pool and in open water.

Recommended level

The camp is aimed at swimmers with enough autonomy to train in both the pool and open water.

As a reference, we recommend that participants are able to swim 2,000 m continuously in the pool and have basic experience in open water or, at least, feel comfortable swimming in the sea.

It is also recommended to be able to maintain sustained paces below 2:15 min/100 m in the pool, especially in order to enjoy the group sessions safely, smoothly and consistently.

Competitive experience or a specific race pace is not required, but participants should have a minimum swimming base that allows them to complete the training sessions independently.

The organization may adapt some sessions depending on the level of the group, but it is important that each participant has previous swimming experience and follows the instructions of the technical team at all times.
